

THE CANADIAN FORENSIC PSYCHIATRY REVIEW COURSE

THE CANADIAN FORENSIC PSYCHIATRY REVIEW COURSE is an intensive program designed to review core areas of criminal and civil forensic psychiatry, as well as assist forensic psychiatric trainees and practitioners in preparing for the Royal College Sub-Speciality designation in Forensic Psychiatry. This course will also help general psychiatrists and physicians in understanding key areas where mental health and law intersect, and criminal and mental health lawyers in more fully appreciating any mental health issues that may arise in a client's case.
